STREET BILLS TO-NIGHT

Delegate Sweeney Declares That Measures Will Be Brought Up for Reconsideration.

TROLL IS MIXING WAR PAINT.

Indications Are That Asphaltum Reconstruction Will Carry and Wood-Block Measur's Will Be Killed.

After the vote to lay over seventeen street reconstruction bills prevailed last Friday. Mr. Sweeney, who urged action, stated that the majority had no desire to kill the bills. He said the vote would be reconsidered to-day and the bills be passed. Yesterday Mr. Sweeney said he had not changed his mind about passing the bills this evening.

Mr. Troll, after whose name "Eighth

Ward" is printed in the roster, threatens to raise a storm at to-day's meeting.

A majority of the Delegates stated yesterday that the street reconstruction bills will be passed. However, it is improbable that the Westminster place and Washington boulevard bills, providing for creosoted wood-block pavements, will receive a favorable consideration. General indications are that these bills will be killed. Mr. Stannard says the Grand avenue reconstruction bills. says the Grand avenue reconstruction bills which he desired to investigate, will be

Cronin relterated his intention to

Mr. Cronin reiterated his intention to move a reconsideration of the vote by which all seventeen bills were laid over. He says he will vote for all of them. And he expresses the hone that every member will attend to-night's meeting. In fact, Delegates who have declared in favor of public improvements say that every member who fails to attend should be recorded as an obstructionist.

Messrs. Cronin, Stannard, Buckley, Fontana and others declare that committees and delegations will not be welcome. Should they come, they state, they will be invited to find seats in the gallery. Mr. Cronin firmly declares that he will not move a reconsideration of the vote if any committees endeavor to sway the House.

The Committee on Public Improvements will meet at 11 o'clock this morning. The World's Fair bond bill will be considered, and probably will be reported to the House this evening. Both branches of the Municipal Assembly are arranging for extra meetings, as all bills not acted upon will die with the session on April 7.

Auditor Dierkes yesterday consulted with City Counselor Bates in regard to transactions with Speaker Kelly and Speaker Pro Tem Geraghty, or their agents, had with the city. It is charged that Mr. Kelly indored checks issued for city printing contracts, and that Mr. Geraghty certified vouchers for livery or undertaking bills.

Adams was arrested once before for the assault, but forfeited his bond. This bond has since been lost, and there is no record of it in the Criminal Court.

Burton was shot while doing special duty in the street car strike. He was riding on the front platform of a southbound Jefferson avenue car near Geyer avenue on May 18, 1899, when a bullet, fired from the crowd struck kim. Adams was arrested and a warrant issued against him. When the trial was called, on June 21, he was not present, and his bond of $890, signed by Samuel Smith and Jacob Johnson, was forfeited. Judge Clark of the Court of Criminal Correction certified the forfeiture over to the Circuit Court for collection, his courn not having the power to collect the judgment. The bond was sent over, but there is no record of the scire facias, and the bond has become lost. A search of the office was made yesterday, but with no result. Unless the bond is found the forfeiture cannot be collected.

I flowed three weeks out of the month; I suffered for months, and finally consulted three physicians. Two of them said I had a tumor, and the third one said I was going into consumption. I was sick and tired, and could not perform my household duties. Finally a friend urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I really had no faith in it, although I had often heard of its wonderful cures; but the fact was I had no faith or interest in anything any more.
